

RTW Project--Paragraph Worksheet

- A. Critically read your source(s).
- B. List main ideas from your source(s):
- C. Choose the three most important ideas from your source(s)—state as phrases:
 - 1.
 - 2.
 - 3.
- D. Write your paragraph using the following formula:

Complex, topic sentence (capture the three most important ideas listed above):

CER #1:

Claim (often a simple sentence):

Evidence (a quote):

Rationale (often a compound/complex sentence):

CER #2:

Claim (often a simple sentence):

Evidence (a quote):

Rationale (often a compound/complex sentence):

CER #3:

Claim (often a simple sentence):

Evidence (a quote):

Rationale (often a compound/complex sentence):

Conclusion (relates back to topic sentence):

Now, cut and paste your entire paragraph here with transitions with each claim. Add signal phrases and citations for your quotes. Add an APA Reference.: